Q. What will you be doing with the pledge? A. The Fight For Your Write pledge is a virtual petition that will live on our website. It is intended to show the support for our mission to celebrate handwriting and to raise awareness about the importance of handwriting.

Q. Can I sign the pledge more than once per day? A. No, you can only sign the pledge once per day.

Q. I've signed more than once, why does my name only appear once on the pledge? A. Your first name, the first initial of your last name, city and state will appear once on BIC's pledge regardless of number of times you've signed the pledge.

Q. Why do you need to collect my information (first and last name, city, state, email address)? A. We collect your information solely for the purpose of posting your first name, first initial of your last name, city and state on the pledge page. We only collect your email address if you have opted-in to receive news and tools from BIC. Please refer to BIC's Privacy Policy for more information.
